

There is nothing that is better than to have instant traffic info available during rush hours. Satellite radio provides the service that keep us moving on time, avoiding accidents and bottlenecks. All the while being entertained by a selection of music, comedy and news unheard of prior to satellite radio. Not to mention how much money such services generate. Please keep the innovations moving us forward, not backward.
Thanks you